Fourth Sunday of Easter
May 7, 2017

Lord, be with me as I offer myself in partnership with you to work in your world.

We talk about the shortage of vocations. We wonder about a time when hundreds joined every year. This brings up all sorts of questions about the future of the church. Today, Vocations Sunday, is not about priesthood only, or religious life. The first big moment of vocation is baptism. The anointing of chrism is the anointing of vocation.

Witness, Love and Service

The baptismal vocation is for Witness, Love and Service. This will be expressed in ways in which people take on their baptism. In married life, single life – within the single life, religious life, priesthood.

Witness – to our faith, the love of God. To the life and the values of Jesus in our lives. Teaching is not itself a vocation for example but the way we teach is a way of living out our vocation.

Love – the ordinary relationships of life. In the special promise of marriage, in family and in friendship. Any love is a sharing in the love of God and a sharing of the love of God. In the moments of unselfish love in any relationship we are living out the vocation. When you love, you are doing God's will!

Service – the wider world. Love of the poorer world, here and elsewhere. A way of welcoming the stranger. Christian love doesn't always mean knowing a person. We want to make the lives of all deserving of the name human.

Donal Neary SJ

"Wherever there is life, fervor, and a desire to bring Christ to others, genuine vocations will arise."

Stewardship by the Book: The watchword today is “immediately.” Peter and Andrew, James and John all respond immediately to the call of Christ. May I be as open to God’s call and as ready to use my talents in His service as those first disciples were!

Daily Opportunities for Prayer

The Rosary is prayed daily at 8:00am before the morning Mass at the statue of our Blessed Mother.

On Thursdays the Rosary and Litany of St. Joseph takes place at his statue.

Each Wednesday a group meets in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel following the 8:30am Mass to pray the Rosary and the prayer of the National Bishops for the "Protection of Religious Liberty".

Morning Scripture Service

A small but dedicated group meets in the parish center chapel at 6:30am Monday through Thursday to begin our days with the Psalms and the daily Scripture readings. Please come and join your voice with ours as we lift our voices in prayer to start the day.

Are you feeling drawn to find out more about the Catholic faith? Are you married to a Catholic and wish to worship together in one faith? Are you an adult who has never received Communion or Confirmation? There are many reasons adults seek to find out more about the Catholic Church. Whatever the questions, the RCIA team can help you find answers. For more information on the RCIA program and inquiry schedule please contact Linda Burns at 650-576-3105.

Importance of Belonging to a Parish

The parish is where the Church lives. Parishes are communities of faith, of action, and of hope. They are where the gospel is proclaimed and celebrated, where believers are formed and sent to renew the earth. Parishes are the home of the Christian community; they are the heart of our Church. Parishes are the place where God's people meet Jesus in word and sacrament and come in touch with the source of the Church's life.

MOVING FROM THE PARISH? NEW TO ST. CHARLES?

During the summer months people move in and out of the parish. In order to maintain our Parish records as accurately as possible, it is important that the Parish Office be notified of any changes. For those who are moving to another area, we wish you many blessings in your new home and ask that you please let us know the date you are leaving. For those of you who are new to the parish, we extend a warm welcome and ask that you please stop by the parish office to fill out a registration form. It only takes a few minutes and is very painless. Our office hours are 9:00am to 4:30pm Monday through Friday, and 8:00am to 1:00pm on Sundays.
